Dear Parents/Caregivers,

Half the term has rushed past already and we still have a lot of events and activities planned for this term.

Book Week: This started with a fantastic performance from two very talented actors, Ethan and Naomi, who kept the students entertained with their “Maybe a Miracle” play. This is the third year we have had Perform Education visit our school and I’m looking forward to seeing what they have to offer in 2025.

Book Fair—thanks to Mrs Carolyn Blake (and staff helpers) for running the book fair for us this year, and for all the parents and carers for supporting us and promoting reading by purchasing books for your children. It was another very successful event, raising $1376, which means purchasing more books for our school library. Well done, everyone!

Book Week Character Parade: This will be held following Room 4’s assembly this Friday, 23rd August. With this year’s theme being “Reading is Magic” it will be great to see students come dressed up to depict this theme. All students who come as a book character will receive a raffle ticket in their classroom, and prizes will be drawn for each class at the parade. Sincere thanks to Mrs Cassie Rowe for her generous donation which will go towards purchasing books for our Library.

Constable Care Excursion: Rooms 3 & 4 will join together to participate in this Excursion on the 27th August. Miss O’Neill “won” this prize as a free excursion last year. Unfortunately, she couldn’t use it last year so thank you, Miss O’Neill. The cost of the bus has been sponsored by our outgoing P&C—a sincere “thank you” to last year’s committee members. This donation is greatly appreciated as it means no cost for any child to attend this excursion and it’s a fantastic learning experience.

Faction Carnival: This is planned to take place on Monday, 9th September, starting at 10:30am. It would be great to see all students in their Faction Colours—Griffin (Green) and Phoenix (Red). A simple crew neck or polo shirt from Big W, Kmart or Best & Less is all that is required so that we see a mass of Red and Green. A program per family will be sent out in the week before the carnival. I’m looking forward to seeing another great parent turnout—and parents’ teams for relays and tug ‘o’ war!

Dance Concert: I have been out watching the classes practice their dance routines for our Concert on the 19th September—and they have all been impressive! Teachers will send home a costume design in the coming week so that it is not left to the last minute. Our concert will start at 6:00pm and will include songs from our Choir, music pieces from our guitarists, art displays from all classes, work from Creative Schools and, of course, the dance routines.

Look out for the Super “Blue” moon from 19th-21st August!

With kind regards.....Stephanne Dann—Stay warm and dry.

SCHOOL UNIFORM

Over the cooler months, we begin to see an array of different outfits being worn to school. The following statement comes from our Uniform Policy and we are requesting that students present to school in the required school uniform or Royal Blue colours.

ALL STUDENTS ARE EXPECTED TO WEAR UNIFORMS

This means that any students accepting enrolment in this school are expected to wear our uniform unless there are special circumstances which have been negotiated with the Principal at the time of enrolment.

“Acceptance of enrolment at a school assumes an agreement between the school, the parent/guardian and the enrolling student that the student will dress within the guidelines of the school dress code. If the dress code is unacceptable, parents have the right to apply for admission to a school where the dress code reflects their preference.”

Department of Education Policy

SCHOOL DRESS REQUIREMENTS

2. Closed in shoes to be worn for safety reasons, and at all times for Physical Education and Sport. Appropriate secure sandals may be worn for all other activities. Shoes such as boots, slip-on sandals, crocs and thongs are not acceptable safe footwear for school.
3. Students must not wear any additional items for clothing which are not part of the school uniform eg bicycle pants, leggings, check shirts, denim, footy jumpers. Leggings may be worn if Royal or Navy Blue in colour.
4. No jewellery other than studs/sleepers in ears and a watch may be worn.
5. No make-up – including nail polish and spray on hair colour.

We also have some larger teacher desks in the meeting room—free for the taking. Please see admin if you would like to have a look at these desks.

Lastly, we have some old “trolleys” which are normally used for students to store their school supplies in. These could be good in a workshop to store your nails, tools, etc. Please see admin if you would like to view these items.
